Psalm 86: 8-12

8 There is none like you among the gods, O Lord, nor are there any works like yours.

9 All the nations you have made shall come and bow down before you, O Lord, and shall glorify your name.

10 For you are great and do wondrous things; you alone are God.

11 Teach me your way, O Lord, that I may walk in your truth; give me an undivided heart to revere your name.

12 I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify your name forever.

Ezekiel 36:26-27

26 A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you, and I will remove from your body the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. 27 I will put my spirit within you and make you follow my statutes and be careful to observe my ordinances.

Message:      Caring For Our Spiritual Heart

Open Worship: In this time of open worship, Friends take time to center down, wait on God to provide ministry to your soul and see if God wishes to use you as an instrument of grace.

Hymn:              We Are One in the Spirit #212

Benediction:

Thoughts for Reflection: “In the biblical understanding, our heart is at the center of our being. It is not a muscle, but a symbol for the very center of our being. Now the beautiful thing about the heart is that the heart is the place that we are most ourselves. . . Prayer and solitude are ways to listen to the voice that speaks to our heart, in the center of our being. One of the most amazing things is that if you enter deeper and deeper into that place, you not only meet God, but you meet the whole world there.”

Henri Nouwen

“ . . . the spiritual heart is conscious of our intimate connection with God and accepts the present moment. When we are living from the spiritual heart we rejoice in the reality before us whether it is good or unpleasant. We know that all is within the touch of God’s grace and love.” Abbess Jane Tomaine
