Psalm 42:1-8

<sup>1</sup> As a deer longs for flowing streams, so my soul longs for you, O God. <sup>2</sup> My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and behold the face of God? <sup>3</sup> My tears have been my food day and night, while people say to me continually, "Where is your God?"

<sup>4</sup> These things I remember, as I pour out my soul: how I went with the throng and led them in procession to the house of God, with glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving, a multitude keeping festival. <sup>5</sup> Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God, for I shall again praise him, my help <sup>6</sup> and my God.

My soul is cast down within me; therefore I remember you from the land of Jordan and of Hermon, from Mount Mizar. <sup>7</sup> Deep calls to Deep at the thunder of your torrents; all your waves and your billows have gone over me. <sup>8</sup> By day the Lord commands his steadfast love, and at night his song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

Message: "Tending To Our Soul"

Open Worship: In this time of open worship, Friends take time to center down, wait on God to provide ministry to your soul and see if God wishes to use you as an instrument of grace.

Hymn: Have Thine Own Way, Lord # 382

Benediction:

Postlude:

Thoughts For Reflection

"The salvation of your soul is not just about where you go when you die. The word 'salvation' means healing or deliverance at the deepest level of who we are in the care of God through the presence of Jesus. Sooner or later, your world will fall apart. What will matter then is the soul you have constructed."

(John Ortberg)

"As I teach, I project the condition of my soul onto my students, my subject, and our way of being together."

(Parker Palmer)
